Pledge of Secrecy of Holder of Permission to Use Data

I hereby pledge not to disclose to anyone the data which are prescribed as confidential by law and which I have been authorised to use.

I pledge not to reveal to a third party information that has become available to me and which I am obliged to keep secret by virtue of the Statistics Act or the Act on the Openness of Government Activities, or which must not be disclosed by virtue of some other act or decree or a separate order issued by a public authority.

I am aware that the obligation to secrecy also includes a prohibition on wrongful use of a confidential document or information in order to obtain benefit for myself or another or to injure another.

I am aware that the obligation to secrecy will remain in force even after the expiry of the granted permission to use data and that breaching it is punishable in law.
